SUMMER IN

italy

A member of New York restaurant family—Charles Rao opened the first Rao's in New York in 1896 and the restaurant's Las Vegas location opened at Caesars Palace in 2006—Frank Pellegrino Jr. brings his foodie family's summer grilling favorites to print in his new cookbook Rao's on the Grill ($35, St. Martin's Press).

The book features full-color photos shot by Frank himself and lets you in on the Rao family's secrets to summer entertaining, including how to cook a pizza on the grill and even how to use your grill to whip up dessert.

While you're in Vegas, treat yourself to a meal at Rao's—we recommend the chicken cacciatore featuring bone-in chicken sautéed with yellow and red bell peppers, sweet peas and button mushrooms in a San Marzano tomato sauce—and then pick up Rao's on the Grill (available on amazon.com and iTunes) and recreate the magic at home. Recipes include skirt steak with green chilies and mushrooms, sausage and ricotta pizza, grilled artichokes with spicy lemon dip and desserts like grilled peaches with mascarpone mousse. Delish!

Rao's | Lunch, Wed.-Sun., 11 a.m.-3 p.m.; dinner, nightly, 5-11 p.m. | Caesars Palace | 877-346-4642

Rio

Take a much needed break from the neon and slot machine cacophony around you at Rio Spa and Salon where massage, body, facial and salon services offer a complete escape from reality. Salon services include full nail treatments—from a Kentucky Bourbon Gentlemen's Pedicure to gel nail enhancements and an express pedicure for gals on the go; waxing services; and hair services from your everyday haircut and style to bridal hair styling, color correction and Keratin straightening. At the spa, indulge in any massage imaginable, from the rejuvenating mini massage to the Thai yoga massage. Body treatments include a plethora of scrubs. And the spa's facial treatments feature brightening, age-defying and deep cleansing treatments that will leave your kisser feeling brand new. Facility fee is $22. Open daily, 6 a.m.-7 p.m.
